

Corrections to “Energy-Efficient Hybrid Analog/Digital Approximate Computation in Continuous Time”

Ning Guo, Yipeng Huang, Tao Mai, Sarvil Patil, Chi Cao, Mingoo Seok^{1b}, Simha Sethumadhavan, and Yannis Tsividis

Following publication of the above paper [1], the authors have learned that the concept of the function generator mentioned in it was described earlier in [2]. The authors would like to thank Prof. Murphy for bringing this reference to their attention.
